

SEPARATION REDUCTION APPLICATION

Fact sheet for applicants

What do you mean by separation requirements?

Some uses allowed by the Zoning Ordinance must be located a certain distance from other types of uses. In many cases, if the use that requires the separation is closer than the Zoning Ordinance allows, the prospective business owner may request a reduction in the separation requirement from the Zoning Board of Appeals. Staff can explain the particulars about when that is allowed.

When should I use this form?

Use this form if you would like to request permission from the Zoning Board of Appeals to reduce a required separation distance. A meeting with City staff is required before you submit the form so that we can help you determine whether a separation reduction request is actually needed and answer your questions about the process of applying for one when it is necessary. To schedule a pre-application meeting, please call Melody Kearse.

What is the cost?

The application fee is $100 for a variance request on residential property and $300 for a variance request on commercial property. Other information about fees includes the following:

- If you decide to withdraw the application before staff submits the legal advertisement for the public hearing on it, 50% of the fee is refundable; after that time, the fee is not refundable, whether you are successful in obtaining approval for the special exception or not.
- If you are also requesting another type of request from the Zoning Board of Appeals during the same meeting, such as a variance request, only one application fee is required.
- Lastly, be aware that if our review determines that a zoning or building permit is required, a fee may be required for that as well.

How can I submit this request?

- Send the form by e-mail to melody.kearse@cityofrockhill.com
- Mail the form to the Planning and Development Department at the address listed above, attention "Zoning Division."
- Submit the form in person at the Planning and Development Department offices at City Hall (155 Johnston Street).

What happens after I submit this request?

Before the meeting: Staff will place your request on the agenda of the next eligible meeting of the Board of Zoning Appeals, which usually will take place about 30 days from when you submit the application. Generally, the meetings take place at 6 p.m. on the third Tuesday of the month in the Council Chambers at City Hall—be sure to ask staff for the exact day and time that your request will go to the Board.

Staff will give public notice about your request as required by state law and the Zoning Ordinance by placing a legal ad in the newspaper about the request, posting the property with a public hearing notice sign for 15 days, and sending out postcards about the request to property owners and tenants within 300 feet of the property.

Staff will provide a written report about the request to the Board members and will make the report available to the public through the City's website. This report will contain an analysis about whether the request meets the standards in the Zoning Ordinance for granting the request (which are paraphrased in the questions you will answer in this application) as well as a recommendation from staff about whether to approve, approve with conditions, or not approve the request. The report also will include your application and supporting documents.

During the meeting: During the Zoning Board of Appeals' meeting, staff will give a presentation about the request and answer any questions that the Board members may have about it. Then you will be given a chance to speak about why you are making the request and to explain why you believe it meets the standards for granting the request. Members of the public also will be allowed to speak about the request, so it usually is a good idea if you speak with your neighbors about what you are trying to do before the meeting. At the conclusion of the public hearing, the Zoning Board will make a decision about whether to approve the application as requested, approve the application with conditions placed on it, or not approve the application. After that, there is a period of time after the ZBA meeting (usually approximately 60 days) when anyone may appeal the case to circuit court, so any work done during this time is at your own risk.

Please note: If the special exception is approved, you may still need to obtain other types of permits, such as a building permit, before you can use the property as desired.

INFORMATION ABOUT REQUEST

What is your proposed use? _____

Separation reduction standards

Please explain to the Board why you believe your request meets these standards. These are the standards the Board will consider when deciding whether to approve your request, although it may find that not all are applicable to your request.

1. Would your proposed use create any adverse impacts to those uses from which separation is required greater than the impacts generally experienced in the area from other permitted uses in the district? (consider noise, lighting, traffic, and any other relevant impacts)

2. Can any impacts of the proposed use be mitigated through buffering, screening, or other mechanisms that are made a part of the site plan for the property?

Exhibits

Please list any documents that you are submitting in support of this application. The ones listed below are suggested, but you may provide others that you believe would be helpful, and in some cases, staff or the Zoning Board of Appeals may request other exhibits as well.

- Site plan
- Photos of property that is the subject of the request
